New collaboration with IKM Instrutek

Trainor and IKM Instrutek collaborate on certification for Electrothermography Level - 1.

- IKM Instrutek is a significant company in Norway, and it is a great recognition that they choose us as a supplier of training services, says Rolf Kinck, Senior Key Account Manager at Trainor.

As one of the largest suppliers of measuring instruments and automation products, IKM Instrutek is a significant player in sectors such as electro, industrial, maritime and oil/gas.

- The collaboration with Trainor makes IKM Instrutek a complete supplier within the Electro Thermography segment, as IKM Instrutek supplies IR cameras and Trainor contributes with certification courses in Electrothermography Level 1, says Trond Jacobsen, General Manager of IKM Instrutek , adding:

- This way, we will be able to offer an affordable and flexible package solution that will benefit the customer.

- Trainor has had a great dialogue with IKM Instrutek for many years, and we are pleased to formalize a collaboration. We are proud to be the training partner of one of the largest players in the Norwegian market, says Rolf Kinck in Trainor
